

Pilgrims

This is to certify that Alina Promska

has successfully participated in the
How to be a Teacher Trainer held at The University of Kent at Canterbury, UK from 6th to 19th August 2017

The course covered:

- Icebreakers and Group formation
- Qualities of a teacher & teacher trainer
- Being a teacher trainer
- Needs analysis / Trainee profiles
- Managing change
- Improving teachers
- Teacher types and Teacher v Trainer
- Planning effective training sessions
- 3 models of training
- Planning effective training sessions
- Key ingredients of a training session and Pre service v in service training
- Project work
- Critical methodology
- Observation and feedback
- Ways of presenting materials
- Microteaching
- Motivation
- Developing teachers
- Mentoring/Six category Intervention Analysis
- Evaluating training outcomes
- Loop input and other techniques
- Action planning
- Reflection sessions

The course included a full programme of Afternoon and Evening cultural and educational activities with guest speakers.

Hours: 64 clock hours

The trainer was Adrian Tennant

Tel: +44 (0) 1227 762111

Email: sales@pilgrims.co.uk

Web: www.pilgrims.co.uk

Suite 1B Orchard House Orchard Street Canterbury Kent CT2 8AP England

ENGLISHUK

Accredited by the
BRITISH COUNCIL for the teaching of English

Education UK
Innovative. Individual. Inspirational.